On our 60th anniversary, SBCS is calling on our alumni, friends, and benefactors to support its campaign for tuition scholarships for poor but deserving students seeking quality Catholic education. This campaign provides a meaningful dimension to the school's celebration of its 60 years of Catholic education in our island community.

On January 26, 2009, as part of our preparation for our 60th anniversary, the school launched the Msgr Zoilo Camacho Endowment Fund. Named after our former pastor, Msgr. Zoilo Camacho, who donated a substantial amount to the school upon his death, the Endowment Fund has been set up principally to fund our tuition scholarship program. With your generous donation, the school will be able to sustain and fund this program and increase the number of beneficiaries so more can avail of a quality, Catholic education at SBCS.

This campaign, of course, involves the collaborative efforts on the part of the school, the alumni, and friends and benefactors of the school. But first we need to spread the word by reaching out to alumni on-island and off-island. We ask you to call on your fellow alumni to help Santa Barbara Catholic School achieve its dream.

A Santa Barbara Catholic School education is a gift in itself. May the joy of giving and helping others be a perfect motivation for you to join us in this cause.
